Arigato Ceiling 2-Light

Design by: Filip Despot, Ivana Pavic & Tihana Taraba

The Arigato family of fixtures has appreciation built into its very DNA given its name means thank you in Japanese. According to its design team, Tihana Taraba, Ivana Pavic and Filip Despot of Grupa Products, this was intentional, as they meant for the simple design to express a humble gesture of gratitude through its minimalist profile. But the trio took anything but an unassertive tack when designing them, as the patented joinery on each fixture has gone through such a rigorous process it simply won't wear out, as is often the case with the joints on mere mortal task-lights. The Arigato ceiling 2-light fixture is available in black and white.
