With the Sfera Pendant, the signature cone-shaped base that recurs throughout Bottega Intreccio's Caratteri collection gives way to a rotund sphere. Its globular shape echoes the elemental beauty of the natural material from which it's fashioned: over 450 feet of carefully selected bamboo wicker, refined and made malleable through a five-step process, and then woven using the Renaissance-era intreccio technique by master artisans in Mogliano, Italy. The geometric design is available in natural finishes, as well as black or white lacquers.
