Le Trulle Petite Pendant

You would have to trek to the Itria Valley to understand the nostalgic reference the Le Trulle petite pendant evokes for Italian designer Edmondo Testaguzza. A Trulli is a traditional stone hut with a conical limestone roof found in the Apulia region of Italy. The playful profile Testaguzza conjured up for this pendant, made of natural ceramic and wire, is his heartfelt nod to this building style's epoch in the 1800s.
